mons showed that he is still to be reckoned with, but whether in any conceivable circumstances the old relations between Mr. Chamberlain and the Gladstonian party could be re-established is still a question. Mr. Morley has since expressed himself with unmistakable plainness on the return of the Liberal Unionists to the Gladstonian fold. He is ready to welcome the rank and file, but as to the leaders, they are "past praying for." And I suppose Mr. Chamberlain must still be included among the leaders, though it is not easy to say who his followers are in the House of Commons except Mr. Jesse Collings, nor where they are to be found in the country outside of Birmingham itself.

I am now told that to call Mr. Godkin an Eminent Emigrant is not quite accurate; or, at least, that such an account of him is not complete. There is no doubt that he is an Emigrant, and there are people who consider him Eminent; of whom I am one. But the records of Castle Garden have, it appears, an additional classification. There is a kind of emigrants whose journey to this country is made easier to them by help from friends, or from the municipal treasury, or perhaps from both. They are known as Assisted Emigrants, and Mr. Godkin, they say, was an Assisted Emigrant. There is some idle tale about a subsequent quarrel between the Assisted Emigrant and the Benefactor who assisted him, and there have been accusations of ingratitude and unhandsome conduct on Mr. Godkin's part, and there are hints of an unpublished correspondence that would throw light on this portion of his career. But these I refuse to believe, and I am sure that the letters, if any there are, can only do him credit. Nothing ever proceeded from that pen which was not admirable and precious; an incentive to virtue, and convincing example of fine manners, and of kindly good-will to his fellow-men. G. W. S.

WEDDINGS PAST AND TO COME.

A very pretty home wedding took place ye morning, when Miss Edith Kent was married to Charles welln at No. 259 West One-hundred-and-twenty eighth-st., the home of the bride's mother. The bride groom being a Catholic, the services were conducted according to the ceremonies of his Church. bride's gown was of white brocade, trimmed with old point lace, and vell of talle. The superb bunch of roses which she carried was the gift of Madame Modjesha. There were no bridesmalds. Among those were Julie W. Kent, Mr. present John T. Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kiggins, Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Ford, Charles E. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Trull, Miss Develin, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Caffey, Dr. and Mrs. Louis L. Seaman, Miss Freeman, Miss Plum and Mr. and Mrs. Manning C. Wells. There were many handsome presents

A quiet wedding took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Elderkin Byrne, No. 62 Wes Fifty-fourth-st., When her daughter, Miss Annie V. H. Byrne, was married to Frederick W. Tappenbeck, of The Rev. Dr. Parkhurst officiated. There were no bridesmaids. The best man was John Barrett. There were two ushers-William Quintard and Williard C. Humphrey. The bride was given away by her Among the relatives and intimate friends present at the ceremony and the dinner following re Mrs. M. E. Tappenbeek, Mr. and Mrs. Soper-Miss Sheldon, Miss Simonds, the Misses Moran, Hoffman Van Brunt Mr. and Mrs. S. Fisher Johnson, Mr and Mrs. Butler Griffiths, Mrs. James Journeay.

Miss Gertrude L. Stilwell, daughter of Mrs. H. L. Stilwell, was married to Henry J. Sills last evening in St. Luke's Methodist Episcopal Church, West Forty-first-st. near Sixth-ave. The Rev. Dr. E. S. Tipple Miciated. The bride was attended by Miss Florence Ireland, her maid of honor. The best man was William T. Palmer, and the ushers were Wilmot H. Smith, Frank M. Orton, Edward Graham, Frank Black, Samuel W. Andrews, Ir., and George Quackenbush. A reception followed at the home of the bride, enbush. A reception followed at the home of the bride, No. 129 West Porty-third-st. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Stillwell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lincoln Sills. Mr. and Mrs. G. Gifford Stilwell, Mr. and Mrs. Eenjamin B. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ireknd, the Messts, Irekand, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Redmond, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bell. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stillwell. Mr. and Mrs. G. Waldo Smith, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Jaynes, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Roy, Miss Roy, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. D. Smith.

The wedding of Miss Florence Jaffray Hurst to J. Foorleen Harriman will take place to-day at noon in St. Thomas's Church. A large reception will follow at the house of the bride's grandfather, E. S. Jaffray, No. 615 Fifthave.

No. 615 Fifth-ave. Cards are our announcing the wedding of Mis-Carrie, eldest daughter of General James W. Husted, and John Myers Shedd, of this city, son of the Rev Dr. William G. T. Shedd, of the Union Theological The ceremony will take place at St. Peter's Church, Peckskill, on Thursday evening, Miss Anna Clark, daughter of John Clark, of the Rev. James W. van Ingen, rector of the Livingston, Mont., Episcopal Church. The ceremony was performed in St. John's Episcopal Church, Yonkers, by the Rev. Alexander B. Carver, the rector, and the Rev. Dr. L. R. Brewer, of Montana.

Poughkeepsie, Nov. 12 (Special) .- James L. Britton, of Arkansas City, Kansas, and Miss Neille H. Fair-tanks, of Massena, N. Y., were married to-day at the home of General A. B. Smith. The wedding securred under the electric light, the light company having sent a special current into the house for the occasion. The Rev. F. B. Wheeler performed the ceremony. The bridegroom is president of the Arkansas City National Bank. He was a schoolmate of Miss Fairbanks at Massena. They will on their bridal tour to Washington, Texas and California. Blooming Grove, in Orange County, Mis-At Blooming Grove, in Orange County, Miss Eigrabeth Miller Hathaway and Walter Brewster were married to-day by the Rev. Warren Hathaway, father of the bride. Miss Hathaway is a griduate of Lyndon Hall, this city, in the class of '87. Among the other members of the class present were Miss Helen Cornwell, Miss Helen Frost, Adde Innis, the Misses Grace and Mary Elsworth, Miss Effic Porteous and Miss Adele Mulrein.

Consider Page New 12. (Gracial) A New 13.

Penn., Nov. 12 (Special).-A pretty wedding took place here to-day, the contracting parties being John A. Baker, manager of "The Daily Herald," of this city, and Miss Laura V. Widner. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. H. Gramer, of the Reformed Church.

SINGERS COME TO AMERICA'S SHORES.

THEODORY REICHMANN SUFFERS FROM SEA SICKNESS-SOME OF HIS TRIUMPHS.

Theodor Reichmann, the famous singer, who has een engaged by Mr. Stanton for the opera season at the Metropolitan Opera House, arrived from Europe on the steamer Ems yesterday morning. He went at once to the Hotel Normandie, where he endeavored to recover from the evil effects of the voyage across the Atlantic. Mr. Reichmann not only was sea-sick, but was obliged to have a swollen gum lanced six times during the trip. When seen by a Tribune reporter he was feeling as well as could be expected under the circumstances, and hoped to be restored to his normal

'This is my first trip to your country," he said "although I have sung in almost every city and sountry of the Continent. I shall make my American debut, so far as known now, in 'The Flying Dutch and shall sing soon afterward in 'Don Juan. But to-day I feel too wretched even to think of any

Mr. Reichmann, who was connected Mr. Reichmann, who was connected for many years with the Imperial Opera at Vienna, and these won his reputation, has been made a court-singer of Austria, Bavaria and Dessau, is say nothing of the decorations which have been conferred upon him during his brilliant career. He won the last title, that of couri-singer of Dessau, is lew weeks ago, having been upon a musical rate in the Duchy. He has severed his active connection with the Imperial Opera at Vienna and now accepts only special engagements there and elsewhere. Mr. Reichmann was also accompanied by Conrad Behrens, the tenor; Frankein Margaretha Webanska, Frankin Kaschoska and Wilhelm Sedelmayer, who will be seen and heard at the Metropolitan Opera House during the winter.

If you want a competent cook or experienced dress-maker, he sure to examine the short advertisements on the fifth page of The Tribune this morning.

OEN BRIGHT'S NEPREW AT THE WHITE HOUSE. Washington, Nov. 12.-Among the President's callers tday was Mr. Bright, of England, son of Jacob Bught, M. P., and nephew of the late John Bright. He was accompanied by Mr. Pace, of England. dent received them cordially, and expressed to Praident received them cordially, and expressed to Mt Bright his great admiration of the character and services of the latter's distinguished uncle, referring to come Bright's well-known friendship for this country during the Civil War. He also remarked that among the books he valued and often referred to was one commining extracts from the speeches and writings of the great English statesman. The visitors were submitted to the control of the present the statesman was drawn to a marble bust of John Bright, which eccupies a prominent place in the main

TWO FAMOUS MUSICIANS.

THEY WILL MAKE AN EXTENDED VISIT HERE.

TALES WITH SARASATE, THE VIOLINIST, AND D' ALBERT, THE PIANIST-SKETCHES

OF THEIR CAREERS.

Among the passengers on board the steamer Ems arrived yesterday, were the violinist Senor Pablo Sarasate and the plan's ts Eugene D'Albert and Mme. Berthe Marx. They were met at the pier by Henry E. Abbey and a score of the Span'sh citizens of New-York who wished to welcome their great countryman. The voyagers were driven to the Hotel Normandle to rest a short time before a reception was to them at the office of Mr. Abbey. "Indeed," said Senor Sarasate, speaking to a Tribune reporter, "I have not had time to recover from my seasickness yet, but my amiable disposition will probably carry me through." He spoke in English, of which he is not a perfect master, and in French. which he speaks as well as a Parisian. "This is my second visit to America," he said. "My first tou was made twenty years ago, when I was but twenty-four years of age. I expect now to find many changes I was with Patti and Nilsson at that time, and visited Philadelphia and Boston. But the musical facilities were then comparatively few and I was obliged to play without an orchestra. It is a different matter to-day, and I expect during this long tour of five or six months to have experiences widely different from those of that day. year I played as usual almost everywhere. I average about 100 concerts every twelve have just closed an engagement at St. James's Hall. in London, having been there for about three weeks During the summer I remained for the most part at Paris, where I now make my home.

Senor Sarasate's career has been brilliant from the He was born at Pamplous, Spain, in 1844, the son of a bandmaster in the Spanish army, and he began using the bow at four and a half years. Queen Isa bella, attracted by his talent, caused him to be set to Paris, where he was introduced to Auber, the director of the Conservatory. His success was at on assured, and he first appeared in England at No Crystal Palace, London, in 1861. Since then he h played at every capital and court of Europe. titles and decorations are numerous, among others being that of Excellency from the Queen of Spain. For D'Albert, this is the first trip to America

Despite his triumphs, he is one of the most modest of men. Clad in the gray-green costume of the German foresters yesterday, with the simple, hearty manners of the Southern German, few who did not know him would have recognized him as the great pupil of Although a born Scotchman, he prefers to Liszt. speals Corman. "America," he said, "is almost the only great country which I have not visited, and I am extremely glad to come. I shall see much of it, too as we intend to spend considerable time in Canada the far West and Mexico. I am rather spoiled natural scenery, however, as I am a resident of Ets enach, Thuringia, in the midst of some of the lovelle scenery in the world, and live almost under th Wartburg, where Luther translated the Bible. I have brought my wife with me, as I wished her to see country also. She was once on the stage at Welman have been as active as usual during th of the season which pa while I was in Europe. I spent three weeks in Berli in September and played at the opening concerts the Iamous Philharmonic orchestra. After that went to Madrid, juillied my engagement, and the met the ship at Southampton to depart for Nev went to Madrid, to filled my engagement, and the met the ship at southampton to depart for New York. I shall enjoy my stay, I feel sure.

Eugen Chares D'Albert was born in Glasgow, Seot land in 1884, and is not yet twenty-six. He is it son of an officer in the French army whose widow removed to Scotland. Young D'Albert's genius man fested itself at an early age. At the invitation of Richter, he went to Vienna when a mere lad an studied subzequently with Liszt in Weimar. Masse Liszt called him the Young Tausig, in allusion to his extraordinary technique. His overture, "Hyperion, was played at the Richter concert in Vienna in 1885, as was also his symphony in F. opus 4, in 1885, as string quartette of his composition was also given a Vienna last winter, and a dramatic overture at the festival at Cologne in 1887. He is at present engaged in the composition of a grand opera. He is thus not only a great performer, but also a compose of no mean merit. He made his first appearance at Vienna, and has since played in all the great cities of the Continent.

Persons in search of board or rooms should examine short advertisements on fifth page of The Tribur

WITH PETITIONS TO THE MAYOR.

FRIENDS OF MISS DODGE AND MRS. AGNEW URGE THEIR REAPPOINTMENT AS COM-MISSIONERS OF EDUCATION.

Friends of Miss Grace H. Dodge and Miss Mary Nash Agnew were largely represented at the Mayor's office yesterday, to press the claims of Miss Dodge and Mrs. Agnew for reappointment as Commissioners of Education. Among those present were Frederic R. Coudert, Morris K. Jesup, Jesse Seligman, Mrs. W. B. Mrs. Richard Irwin, Mrs. Josephine S. Lowell Mrs. Francis Fisher Wood, Miss Choate, Miss Potter

Miss Thompson, on behalf of a large number teachers presented to Mayor Grant a petition, intended as a protest against the recent effort of female teachers to prevent the appointment of any more women as

A petition was offered by Mr. Condert recomm the reappointment of Miss Dodge and Mrs. Agnew It was signed by many prominent citizens, including Bishop Potter, Levi P. Morton, George Bliss, Brown Brothers & Co., Jesse Seligman, George Bowdin, W. W. Astor, the officers of Columbia College, the trustees Barnard College, ex-Judge Noah Davis, Francis Lynde Stetson, Henry Villard, Louis C. Tiffany, Morris & Jesup, F. R. Coudert, Robert W. De Forest, Charles D Kellogg, Charles S. Fairchild, the Rev. Drs. Howard Crosby and Henry Y. Satteriee, J. C. O'Conor. jr. Adrian Iselin, jr., Franklin B. Lord, James R. Roose Adrian Iselin, Jr., Franklin B. Lord, James R. Roosevelt, J. Pierpont Morgan, Stephen P. Nash, James P. Kernechan, the Rev. Dr. W. S. Rainsford, James P. Kernechan, the Rev. Dr. W. S. Rainsford, James M. Varnum, H. G. Marquand, William Jay, John L. Cadwalader, W. R. Duor, W. B. Travers, Robert L. Cutting and William Sloane.

A similar petition, signed by well-known physicians of the city, was then presented to the Mayor by Mr. Coudert. It bore the names of Dr. Fordyce Barker, Dr. Loomis, Dr. Jacobit, Dr. Alexander S. Hunter, Dr. O. B. Douglas, Dr. Albert H. Buch, Dr. W. S. Balken and many others.

Mr. Coudert supplemented the petitions with a pleasant speech, ursing the reappointment of Miss Dodge and Mrs. Agnew. Mayor Grant said that he had not made up his mind on the subject under discussion, but it should receive his most earnest consideration.

" LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY." Mrs. Burnett's familiar stage version of her story, "Little Lord Fauntleroy," was presented at the Madison Square Theatre yesterday afternoon as the first of a series of matinees which will occupy four afternoons of each week. After the run of the piece at the Broadway Theatre, which continued all last winter and far into the spring, no word about the play itself is needed. It may be said, however, that the Madison Square Theatre is better adapted for its reculiar character and its quiet scenes than any other theatre in which it has been seen in New-York, and it at once seemed at home in the little playhouse, The audience was a good one, and laughed and cried as the situations demanded. The influence of the place could be seen in the fact that there were several children in the audience who, if they had been placed on the stage, would have looked the part of the little

The title part was played by Wallie Eddinger, who has already acted in the West. It would be an un-grateful task to criticise adversely the acting of such grateful task to criticise adversely the acting of such a child. The little actor is a handsome boy and speaks the words that are given to him simply and unaffectedly, with now and then a pretty touch of nature in voice and action. Miss Isabel Evesson looked and acted the part of Mrs. Errol pleasingly, and Miss Emily Lytton, as Minna, assumed an unpleasant part with much credit. J. H. Gilmour and F. F. Mackay are already familiar through their performances as the old earl and his lawyer last season. The other actors ware Russell Bassett, B. W. Singer, Lawrence Eddinger, Edward Rose, H. G. Stanley, and Miss Anne Gregory Allen.

OTTO HEGNER.

The prodigy Hegner was heard with affectionate interest by another numerous audience audience at his second matinee in the Browlway Theatre yesterday afternoon. He played Weber's "Concertstueck" with orchestral accompaniment and a suite in five movements which was announced as his own composition.

If it was really written by the lad he possesses far greater musical gifts than any of his performances at the pianoforte have led his critical listeners to credit him with.

AN ELEVEN-FOOT HOLLTHOCK. From The Providence Journal. A hollybook whose stalks are eleven feet high is in full bloom in the yard of C. W. Holbrook, No. 24
Jenkins-st.

HE DID NOT UNDERSTAND THE CHIMES

where's the fire?" On being assured that no con-flagration was then in progress, he ambied away apparently very much disappointed.

SELECTIONS FROM THE MAIL. AN UPTOWN FREE LIBRARY.

To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: A recent notice in one of the morn as to the lack of free libraries in certain sections of the city urges me to request you to give publicity in your valued columns to the following facts: The Aguilar Free Library has just completed the second year of its existence. It has two main branches, one at No. 206 East Broadway and the other at 721 Lexington-ave., the intersection of Fifty-eighth-st. At each of the branches a choice collection of books is all departments of literature is to be found. The circulation during the last year was over 130,000. Any resident of the city of New-York over ten years of are is entitled to the use of the library and is aided thy resident of the city of New-York, Nov. 12, 1889.

In the choice of books by competent librarians, eading room where the latest leading periodical are kept on file is to be found at each place above neutioned.

Chairman of the Library Committee.

THE IRONCLAD OATH AT NEW-ORLEANS. To the Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: During the late was there an oath known as the "Iron-bound Oath," which all persons entering New-Orleans were obliged to sign!

New-York, Nov. 11, 1889. CONSTANT READER.

(No; but all American citizens entering New Orleans had to take and sign the oath of allegiance The "iron-clad oath" was the form of affirmation required from office-holders by the act of July 2, 1862.-Ed.)

WHERE DOES SLAVERY SURVIVE! To the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: In what civilized countries are slaves held at C. J. B. the present time! New-York, Nov. 11, 1889. (Turkey.-Ed.)

A TARIFF ON SUGAR OR A BOUNTY!

o the Editor of The Tribune. Sir: I think it would be wise for Congress to take the entire duty off sugar and give sugar growers in the United States a bounty fully equal to if not greater than the duty we now collect on foreign sugar. The law taking off the duty should fix trusts and "combines" so that they would be inoperative.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 9, 1889.

The little advertisements of the people are be-coming more and more popular every day. The reason is plain—they do what they set out to do. They bring together those who can buy and those who wish

PRAISED BY THE DELEGATES.

SOMETHING ABOUT THE MEN TO WHOSE TACT AND SKILL WAS DUE THE SUCCESS OF THE PAN-AMERICAN PARTY'S TRIP.

Philadelphia, Nov. 12 .- As the long journey he Conference delegates is closing, many of the part have, in person and in writing, commended the rig care with which W. E. Curtis, representing the State Department, supervised all details for their con ence and comfort. The travellers have remarked a quality of rugged firmness possessed by Mr. Curtis which, coupled with simple courtesy, has often sto as a bulwark between the guests of the Governmen and local undertakings that would have been undul fatiguing, without particular profit, within the lines on which the tour was projected. In all his volunt-nous correspondence with local committees, and in his dealings with importunate and well-intentioned towns and cities, Mr. Curtis has observed a straightforward course that could give no offence, although his deisions have caused regret locally. Firm generalship under great stress and extremely embarrassing conlitions has gained for the State Department repre sentative in charge of the tour the hearty respect of local people, and, without exception, the unqualified commendation of the occupants of the great

Beneath the surface has been a man who, during the entire trip, has watched night and day lest inonvenience or accident should befull the party-8. W. Draper, the tourist agent of the Pennsylvania Rai ond, who has been in charge of the train. vigilance upon thirty strange railways, and his con-stant supervision of details, under trying conditions. mong strangers, has enabled the Pennsylvania road to bring home its great train from a trail of 6,000 niles without a jar or a scratch.

Forward, in the engine No. 1,053, Engineer Har as ever been seen at the throttle, night and day while the train was on the road-a quiet, determ while the train was on the road—a quiet, determined young man, having few words, but with a nerve which has not failed in any instance. His most rapid run on the trip was one of forty miles at an average rate of sixty-five miles an hour, sventy-two miles per hour having been sustained for a long struck. Also on board was Mr. Booth, of the Pennsylvania motive-power department; and no nut, or bolt, of the entire train has ever been known by the travellers to have been out of place. Fireman Tarr, of the Pennsylvania road, has been able to hold the gauge at 135 pounds, when local firemen, with their own coal, could not know the nother above 103.

135 pounds, when local firemen, with their own coal, could not keep the pointer above 105.

No member of the party had lifted a piece of baggage heavier than an umbrella. Luggage left in the train was found in the rooms of the party at their hotels almost as soon as they had given and, when left at departure, was as speedily and surely transferred to the train. This was done by Grorge Dale, Mr. Draper's assistant on the train.

A DAY OF INSPECTION IN PHILADELPHIA. Philadelphia, Nov. 12 - The Pan-American delegates this morning inspected a sugar refinery, after which they spent an hour in the University of Ponnsylvania, where luncheon was served. At luncheon the party was joined by the ladies who had previously been pleasantly received by George W. Childs at "The Ledger" The provost of the university, Dr. Pepper welcomed the party in a short address which was repended to by Dr. Cruz, the delegate from Guatemala nimself president of a university. After luncheon the party went to Tacony. Here at the Dissen aw works they beheld the various processes necessary turn scraps of steel, first into the ingots, then ito sheeis, and so on into saws of every kind and e-cription, from tiny fret-saw blades up to oircular aws of eighty-four inches in diameter. facony the party went to the Cramps' shipyards. visitors boarded the crutsor Balti- pastor. nore, where things were in some confusion owing the preparations going on for a trial trip to the preparations going on for a trial trip to morrow, and were then taken on the Vesuvius, where they saw the dynamite-guns and other features of that original craft.

The party returned to the hotel about 6 o'clock, and in the evening attended a reception tendered by the Manufacturers' Club. Some of the party, however, went to the Broad Street Theatre and saw "Richard III," with Richard Mansfield in the title role.

Washington, Nov. 12.—On saturday of this week the delegates to the International American Congress and those of the International Maritime Conference will be taken on a special train to visit the Naval Academy at Annapolis. The American delegates will go as the guests of the Secretary of State, and the Marine delegates as the guests of the Secretary of the Navy.

Minister Preston to-day introduced to Secretary Riaine, Arthur Laforestric, the delegate from Hayti to the International American Congress. Later the new delegate was presented to President Harrison by the Secretary. Paraguay has given notice to the Secretary of State that Senor Don Jose S. Decord will represent that Government in the International American Congress.

can Congress. SPAIN AND THE PAN-AMERICAN CONGRESS. Madrid, Nov. 12 .- In the Chamber of Deputies o-day, Senor Portuondo, a Cuban member, gave notice that he would question the Government regarding the Congress of American States at Washington. Marquis de Armijo, Minister of Foreign Affairs, re-sponded that Spain had not been invited to take part in the congress. He asked Senor Portuondo to post-pone his interpellations until the result of the con-gress was known.

ARIETY AT THE FOURTEENTH STREET THEATER. The Howard Athenaeum Specialty Company be can on Monday a short engagement at the Fourteenth street Theatre, offering the same attractions that it did a few weeks ago at the Bijou and a few new one some of the specialties are of unusual excellence and many of them are already well known to lovers of this type of entertainment, but they always prove attractive at each repetiton. In athletes the com-pany is especially strong, as it has usually been in the past, while among the character performers George Thatcher and "Dutch" Daly are among the most popular.

N TRISH LEGACY FOR SULLY, THE ACTOR. Kansas City, Nov. 12.—Daniel Sully, the actor, re-sived word this evening through his attorneys at his home in Newport, R. I., that they have been advised of the death of his uncle in Dublin, Ireland, who leaves the bulk of a large property to the actor. Mr. Sully after completing existing engagements will go to Ireland to make disposition of the property.

SENATOR EVARTS RETURNING HOME. London, Nov. 12 - Senator William M. Evarts and his family will sail for New-York to-morrow. Mr. Evarts's health has improved, and his eyesight is stronger. He has received many attentions during his visit in London. A farewell dinner was given to him last night. Among the guests were Lord Chief Justice Coloridge and Presiding Justice Hannen, of

A CHAMELEON-LIKE HEN.

From The Buffalo Courier.

Yesterday evening while the chimes of St. Paul's Were ringing out sweet melody a man rushed up to the Arounder and breathlessty inquired: "Say, mister,
the Arounder and breathlessty inquired: "Say, mister,

She stacted in life a plain, dark brown pullet, but soon exchanged this for a black and white suit. The next time she shed her feathers she came out as white as snow, and this fall she appears in a black, white and tan dress.

OBITUARY.

EBENEZER BEADLESTON.

Ebenezer Beadleston died at his home, No. 44 West Fifty-fifth-st., on Monday evening, age eighty-seven. He was one of New-York's venerable, enterprising and highly successful citizens. He was born at Queensbury, Warren County, on March 27, 1803, and re cived an ordinary school education. He went from his books to a seven years' apprenticeship to the tanning and currying trade. In 1824 he changed his home to Troy, where he engaged in the same lit business and remained for thirteen years. In 1837 he accepted the offer of the then well-known brewing firm of A. Nash & Co., of Troy, to establish an agency for their ales in this city, and he removed here, and three years later he became a partner in the concern, which assumed the title of Nash, Beadleston & Co In 1846 the firm purchased the old State prison prop erty, in Greenwich Village, bounded by Amos (now West Tenth), Washington, Charles and West sts., and part of the old building was fitted up as a brawery. On a part of the property was subsequently erected the Empire ale and porter and lager beer breweries of the firm of Beadleston & Woerz, of which Mr. Beadleston's two sons, William H. Beadleston and Alfred N. Beadleston, are members.

but still found much to occupy his time in the manage ment of other institutions in which he was interested. He became president of the Stuyvesant Safe Deposit

In 1865 Mr. Beadleston retired from active business,

Company, at No. 1 Third-ave, the second corporation of the kind established in the city; he was also vice-president of the Pacific Bank, a director in the Pacific Fire Insurance Company and the Merchants' Insurance Company, being one of the founders of these several corporations.

A prominent member of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, he subscribed largely to its building fund, besides giving liberally but unostentationsly to the support of the church and for various charitable objects. He was of domestic habits, buoyant and cheerful in manner, a kind father and stoaffast, hospitable, kindly and genial, though at the same time unostentations and unassuming in manner. During his entire career he neither held political office no sought prominence in public affairs. Until the last his cordial interest in the welfare of his friends was only surpassed by the affection he bore for his friends was only surpassed by the affection he bore for his family and besides his two sons and three married daughters he leaves many relatives and a large circle of friends to whom his death is a severe loss.

St. Peter's Episcopal Church to be built. He was connected with nearly all the Episcopal institutions in and near Pittsburg.

Mr. Shoenberg r was twice married. His first wife Mr. Shoenberg's was twice marked. In Sec. was Miss Margaret Cust, of Greensburg. Penn. In 1880 he married Miss Alice Taylor, drughter of Alexander Taylor, of Cardenas, Cuba. He had no children. His widow and two brothers, George R., of Cincionati, and Edwin F., of Philadelphia, survive him.

The funeral will take place at St. Thomas's Church on Thursday, at 4 p. m. Bishop Scarborough, of New-Jersey, an old friend of the dead man, will officiate. The burdal will be at Pittsburg.

COLONEL ALFRED RHETT. Charleston, S. C., Nov. 12 (Special).—Colonel Al-red Rhett died here to-day in his sixtieth year, of congestive chilis. He was one of the most prominfigures in the War of the Rebellion on the coast. was a son of Robert Barnwell Rhott, United States and Confederate States Senator, and founder of "The Charleston Mercury," the paper which so severely opposed Jeff. Davis's Administration. Colonel Rhett was craduated at Harvard in 1860 and he at once hasten o Charleston, his native home, and entered he South Carolina army as a lieutenant. His capain was Ransom Calhoun, a relative of John C. alhoun, and the battery was stationed at Fort Moul When Major Anderson and his little force were bombarded in April, 1861, Rhett's battery fired edhot shot into the fort and eventually set fire to the barracks. During the engagement his captain reprimanded him for some cause and this gar o a feud, which finally ended in the death of Calnoun. Colonel Rhett held charge of the Confederal forces at Sumter till General Gillmore had so pounded the walls that the fortress was no longer available for artillery uses. He never forgave Calhoun for the affront put upon him. Calhoun declined a challenge to fight a duel, but offered to meet Rhett after the war was over. In 1862 Rhett's demunciation of Calhoun brought a challenge from a friend of the latter Shots were exchanged, but no one was injured. Then Calhoun resigned his commission in 1863 and challenged Rhett. The commission in facts limits, and Cathoun duel was fought in the city limits, and Cathoun mortally wounded at the first fire. Colonel I succeeded him in command of the regiment. Co lithet was chief of police of this city for several y and at the time of his death was a magistrate

THE REV. DR. JONATHAN F. STEARNS. The Rev. Dr. Jonathan F. Stearns, pastor-emeritus of the First Presbyterian Church of Newark, died on Monday night at the home of his daughter, Mrs. tustin Scott, in New-Brunswich. Dr. S.carns was born in Bedford, Mass., in 1808; was graduated at Harvard in 1830, studied theology in Andover Seminary, and was Beensed to preach in 1834. His first charge was the Congregational Church in Newburyport, Mass., where he acted as pastor from 1835 to 1849, In the latter year he accepted a call from the First Presbyterian Church in Newark, to succeed the Re Dr. Eddy. He remained as active pastor until 1883, over thirty-three years, when he was made pastor

During the active part of his life Dr. Stearns held a high position in the church, as well as in the community. In 1868 he was mederator of the General Assembly of the Presbytery, at Pittsburg, and was active in bringing about the union of the Ohl and New school branches of the Presbyterian Church. He leaves a daughter and two sons, his wife having ded several years before he left Newark to five with his daughter in New-Brunswick. One of his sons 5 the Rev. Lewis F. Stearns, a Professor in the Theological Seminary at Bangor, Me., and the other, sargeam P. Stearns, of Montreal, formerly United States Consul at that city. The body will be taken to Newark Thursday, and the functal will take place at the First Presbyterian Church at 2 p. m. on that day. The burial will be at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery. During the active part of his life Dr. Stearns held Pleasant Cemetery.

AMBROSE E. KITCHELL. Ambrose E. Kitcheil, a well-known leather me chant, died suddenly at his home near Madison, N. J., on Sunday morning. He was born at Hanover Neck. Morris County, N. J., in 1834. He entered the leather business in New-York at an early age and continue in it until the time of his death. He was a member of the firm of Ely, Vanderpoel & Kitchell, No. 103 Gold-st. He had always lived at Madison, N. J. He was a life long Republican. His father, who survives him, was one of the committee who met and entertained President William Harry Harrison when he visited New Jersey; he also voted for his grandson last fall. A widow and two children, a son and daughter, both unmarried, survive the dead man.

JOHN FEY. John Fey, a member of the Brooklyn Board of ducation, died yesterday at No. 373 Ninth-st., in that ity. He suffered from a stroke of paralysis occurred on saturday. Mr. Fey was born in Ireland in 1835 and came to this country in 1871. He was in the fron business in this city and was active in Democratic politics in Erooklyn. In 1886 Mayor Whitney made him a member of the Board of Education and Mayor Chaidh reappointed him last summer. He left a wife and seven children.

THE REV. WILLIAM HALL.

The Rev. William Hall, one of the oldest Presbyterian ministers in the city, died on Sunday at his home. No. 107 East Eighty-fifth-st., from acute bronchitis, after a few days' filness. He was born in 1811, and was the son of William Hall, an old-time New-York shipping merchant. Having been graduated from the University of the City of New-York, he passed through the Union Theological Seminary and took orders as a Presbyterian minister. For many years he was pastor of different churches throughout this State, and some years ago retired from active work and became a contributor to retired from active work and became a contributor to various magazines. The funeral will take place at 10 180 various magazines. The funeral will take place at 10 180 this morning, in the Presbyterian Church, at Lexingtoniave, and Eighty-sixth-st. The burial will be at Woodlawn. THE REV. WILLIAM HALL

MISS AMELIA B. EDWARDS'S SECOND LECTURE. MISS AMELIA B. EDWARISS SECOND of Miss Amelia B. Edwards delivered the second of her lectures in the Brooklyn Academy of Music last evening to a large andience. B. R. Bowker in introducing her made a plea for international copyintroducing her made a plea for international copyright. Miss Edwards told "The story of an Egyptian Mound." A reception was given to Miss Edwards after the lecture in the Brooklyn Library, which was decorated with plants and flowers for the occasion. More than a thousand persons, including many of the most prominent residents of the city, shook hands with her. She will lecture in Boston to-night. GLANCES HERE AND THERE.

The significant odor of naphtha gas-the most volatile, the most inflammable and the most explosive of the flluminating gases-is again to be suffled in the streets whirever they are "up" for any purpose. And, indeed, don't they seem to be "up" everywhere, for almost every purpose except to be relaid properly? Not for that. A day or two ago a young and sturdy looking workman was lifted out of the "man-hole" why not man-trap?) at Forty-second-st, and Fifth-ave ... in a state of almost complete asphyxiation. This was at half-past 10 in the morning; crowds were passing in cars, carriages and afoot; and a few feet away some other workmen were making sparks fly from the grantic blocks with their heavy sledge-ham-mers. If there had been an explosion, would it have been a "mysterious accident"!

It sounds strange to hear of vast sums yet to be spent for private residences in Flith-ave. anywhere below Fifty-ninth-st. when one reflects on the rapid progress the business houses are making up that once exclusive thoroughfare toward Central Park. Heretofore property-owners have experimented with such makeshift schemes as putting plate-glass windows in the basement and first floor fronts of the old brownstone "mansions," but that process now is being abandoned and private houses, yet in decent repair, are being ruthle-siy torn down to make way for many-storied structures given over from sub-cellar to attle wholly to the uses of trade. The handsome house of Mrs. Paran Stevens, for instance, now holds the fort absolutely alone, in the block from Twenty-seventh to Twenty-eighth-st, on the west side. The leasing of Gardiner's Island, in Long Island

Sound, the other day, for a game preserve, and the great scarcity of quali this season on Long Island, have brought prominently into notice the advantages to be derived, both of a sportsmanlike and of a financial kind, from securing tracts of rugged and security and long tracts of rugged and kindly omit flowers. so whem his fereign and three married daughters, and the entering of freeday and the preserve has spring up even among the born for his family, and the entering of the first state and a large circle of freeday.

JOHN H. SHOENEERGER.

John H. Shoenberger & Co., from manufacturers, of Pittaburg, Penn., died yesterialy morning from apoplexy, at his home, No. 43 west Fifty-seventh-at. Mr. Shoenberger was born in Hintington County, Penn., in 1809. He was a son of Dr. Peter Sheenberger, who became business in Pittaburg in 1824. The son successfol his father, and was actively engaged in business until he left that city for New-York about nine years ago, lie was for a number of years president of the K. change National Bank in Pittaburg. He was one of the first members of Trainty Episcopal Church there, and was actively engaged in business and the extension of a chance risk members of Trainty Episcopal Church there, and trained and the presence of a chance risk members of Trainty Episcopal Church there, and trained and the presence of the surface of the Sixthawa was built. He was a liberal given to the presence of the surface of the sur uncultivated land near the city, stocking them with game birds and affording the game proper protection to lean against. It is a great pleasure, of course, to have lots of pretty things, but they need not all be on have lots of pretty things, but they need not all be on exhibition at once. One fashionable woman in this city, who can afford to buy almost anything that strikes her fancy, has a store-room in her house filled with choice brica-brac and furniture. Every week a dozen or so of these precious treasures are brought out and arranged about the rooms, and as many others that have been on duty for a time are packed away again. Thus her parlor has always a certain expression about it, so to speak, widely different from the look of a barar, highly fashionable, but exceedingly unrestful, that a too-well-filled room has.

A variety of desirable things are advertised in the page of The Tribune this morning.

THE ORNITHOLOGISTS' CONGRESS MEETS.

ONLY ROUTINE BUSINESS YESTERDAY-SEVERAL PAPERS TO BE READ TO-DAY.

The seventh annual conference of the American egun yesterday morning in the Museum of Natural distory. Some forty delegates, many of them pronent ornithologists, were present when the presiden Among those in attendance were the vice-presidents of the union, Elliott Cones and Robert Ridgeway, of Washington: William Dutcher, of this city: Charles F. Batchelder, Charles B. Cory, and William Brewster, of Cambridge, Mass.; Dr. Edgar A. Mearns, of the United States Army; John H. Sage, of Portland; Conn.; George B. Sennett, of Erie, Penn.; Jonathan Dwight, jr., and Frank M. Chapman, of this city; Dr. J. Armory Jeffries, of Boston; L. Belding, of Stockton, Cal.; Louis A. Zerega, Ernest E. Thompson, Leverett M. Loomis and Mrs. Olive Thorne Yesterday's session was taken up with the routine husiness of the union, but to-day's session will be more interesting. The scientific papers to be read perfore the convention to-day will include "Observations on the Fauna of Arizona," by Dr. Edgar A Mearns; "The Winter Distribution of the Bobolink," by Frank M. Chapman, "On the Changes of Plumage the Bobolink," by Frank M. Chapman; "To Wi in the Bobolink," by Frank M. Chapman; "To What Extent is it Profitable to Recognize Geographical Variation among North American Birds," by J. A. Allen; "Birds that Have Struck the Bartholdi Statue of Liberly New-York Harbor," by Jonathan Dwight, ",: "On the Forms of the Thryothavus Indaricianus Group of Wrens," by J. A. Allen; "On the Eastern Forms of Geothlypis Trichas," by Frank M. Chapman; "On the Western Form of the Warbling Vireo," by Edgar A. Mearns, "Themseks on San Francisco Mountain and Vicinity from the Faunal Standpoint," by Dr. C. Hart Merriam, and "Abundance of the Wild Pigeon in Central and Eastern New-York in 1833," by Professor R. W. Whitfield. The next convention will be held in Washington.

BURGLARS FOILED.

Night callers on Hausman & McManus tampered with their Champion Safe on Sunday night. The dial date had been broken off for the purpose of introducog a punch, and an attempt made to drill two holes. The only booty secured was 35 cents in postage stamps from a drawer in the desk. The "Herring" was too nuch for them .- (Rahway (N. J.) National Democrat,

Don't take any chances with a stubborn coid, but get rid of it rationally with the help of Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, a healing medicine for the lungs.

Times change and tastes with them. Fortunately, both change into improvement on the whole, which results in progress. Formerly furniture went by "sets," and "set" they certainly were, turned out by upholsterers with no other idea than to fill space with so many copies of a fixed pattern; so many stiff, usily chairs in the room—the regular sofa here, the prescribed table there, the requisite number of pictures, and all as dead and mechanical as a paper of pins. But if city houses must be "just like our neighbors"," their contents need not be, for the old store of Sypher & Co., Broadway and Seventeenth-st., has broken up the sameness. Here are Seventeenth-st., has broken up the sameness. Here are the ideas of centuries, showing that "art is long." Here is the beauty of variety. Strong contrasts and things different appear at every turn-from nation to nation, century to century, beauty to utility, and, back again, delicacy to strength. It gives opportunity and sour to personal selection, for here one can get what is wanted instead of turning the house over to an upholsterer to "furnish." One can have fossil history, teaching by object lesson as often as the object is looked at. Prices also vary as widely as does the stock, and they are fair, with daily bargains also. It is a good place to sample and hunt in, which is always encouraged, and here is never any solicitation to purchase.

Many persons keep Carter's Little Liver Pills or hand to prevent bilious attacks, sick headache, dizziness, and find them just what they need. The Cambridge, 5th-ave, and 33d-st., is a putatiat, model home, with all hotel conveniences. Cuisine unsurpassed. Lorenz Reich, proprietor.

The "Rex Wheat" Booths at American Institute Fair and American Health Exhibit, Brooklyo, are always growded with delighted tasters of the new breakfast dish, "Rex Wheat."

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria, When she was a Child she cried for Castoria, When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

BANKS-MORTIMER-On Tuesday, November 12, 1889, at the Presbyterian Church, Englewood, New-Jersey, by the Rev. Dr. Henry M. Booth, Henry Ward Banks, Irand Mabel, daughter of Morton Mortuner, all of Engle-

S. Develin.

PARRINGTON-KING-On Tuesday, November 12, 1889, at Christ Church. Bloomfield, N. J., by the Rt. Rev. I. A. Starkey, Bishop of Newark, assisted by the Rev. R. N. Carlin, Rector, Rev. H. K. Hicker, Associate Rector, and the Rev. W. G. Parrington, D. D., Blarche Marie, daughter of A. J. King, esq. of Bloomfield, to Mr. W. Wilson Rip. eldest son of the Rev. W. G. Parrington, D. D., of Orange, N. J. SILIAS-STILWELL-On Tuesday, November 12, at St. SILIAS-STILWELL-On Tuesday, November 12, at St. Luke's M. E. Church, by the Rev. E. S. Tiphe, Henry J. Silis to Getturde L., daughter of the late Richard E. Shiweil, all of this city.

MARRIED.

WAN INGEN-CLIARK-On Tuestay, November 12, in Sa.
John's Church, Youkers on-the Hudson, by the Rev. A. B.
Carver and the Right Rev. L. R. Brewer, Miss Anna, daughter of John Giark, to the Rev. James William Van Ingen.

Notices of marriages must be indersed with full name and address.

DIED.

BEADLESTON—On Monday evening. November 11, 1839, Ebenezer Bendleston, in the 87th year of his age. Relatives and friends are invited 20 attend the funeral services at his late residence. No. 44 West 55th-st., of Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Kindly amit flowers.

CROMWELL-Suddenly, in this city, November 11, Ruth, wife of Thomas Cromwell.
Funeral services at St. Chrysestom's Chapel, 7th-ave, corner 30th-st., this Wednesday, at 3:30 p. m. corner 30th-st, this Wednesday, at 3:30 p. m.
GODWIN-At Paterson, N. J., Novembe, 11, 1289. Anne
Eliza Gedwin, widow of Abram H. Godwin.
Panersi at the residence of Mrs. Abram Prail. No. 134
Agractest Toolog, N. J., Thursday, November 14,
1890, at 10 close, and 10 clo

Philadelphin papers please copy.

HALL-Entered into rest on Sunday, November 10, the Rev. William Hall, in his 78th year, at his residence,
No. 107 East Soth St., New-York City.
Friends and relatives are invited to attend the funeral from Presbyterian Church, corner Lexington-ave. and 86th-8t., on Wedneskay, November 13, 1889, at 10:30
o'cbck a. m.
Please omit flowers.
Buffalo papers please copy.
HOADLEY-On Monday. November 11, George Edwart
Hoadley, as the residence of his son-in-law, William Primer Sunth, at Netherwood, N. J.
Notice of funeral hereafter.

INFERENCE-On November 9, at Greenwich, Conn., Joseph

Notice of functal hereature.

JEFFERS.—On November 9, at Greenwich, Conn., Joseph
Jeffers, in the 80th year of his age.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the functal from Church of the Holy Trinity, Madison-ave. and 421-st., on Wednesday, November 13, at 2 o'clock p. in.
Interment at Woodlawn. Special train leaves Grand Centrai Depot at 2:40 o'clock.

KITCHELL-Suidenly, at Madison, New Jersey, Sunday morning, November 10, Ambrose E. Kitchell, in his 50th year, year, Your year on Wednesday, November 13, at 2 p. m.

N. J. of Thursday, November 12, Felix Stolber, in the 77th year of his age. Funeral services will be held at his late residence, 154 Rast 70th-st. at 7 o'clock this Wednexiay evening. Interment at the convenience of the family.

Red Letter Extracts. made by Standard Perfumery Works) are delicate, lasting and true, and have wen their way into popular favor by merit alone. Flower de Luce and Heart's Ease are en tirely new combinations and delightfully fragrant.

Sold by leading dealers in perfumery. Free Exhibition AMERICAN WATER COLORS

KEPPEL'S GALLERY, 20 East 16th-st. (Union Square.) Fifth Avenue Art Galler $66 STH-AVE., NEAR 34TH-ST.

FREE EXHIBITION. ANTIQUE BLUE AND WHITE AND DECORATED CHINESE PORCELAINES, JADES, LACQUERS, AND

EMBROIDERIES. Being the Collection formed by MR. E. J. SMITHERS, Charge d'Affaires at Pekin and U. S. Consul at Tientsin.

To be sold by anction without reserve, by order &

HERTER BROTHERS. MONDAY AND TUESDAY AFTERNOONS, November 18 and 19, AT 25 O'CLOCK.
ROBERT SOMERVILLE, Auctioneer, BY ORTGIES & CO.

lungs and debility is frequently rendered unavails its strong odor and taste. Caswell, Massey & Co.'s QUININE entirely overcomes these objections

Cod Liver Oil.-This invaluable medicine for weak

SEE LETTERS FROM LEADING PHYSICIANS TO CASWELL, MASSEY & CO. Established 1878.—MRS MCELRATH'S HOME-MADS PRESERVED, BRANDIED, CANNED AND SPICED FRUITS AND JELLIES.

PURE RED CURRANT JELLY A SPECIALTY.

Everything put up in giass and kept until fall. For prices, references, ec. address Mrs. SARAH S. MCELRATH, 393
Legraw at., Brooklyn, N. Y. 1.121 B'way, 578 5th-ave., and Newport, R. I

To Regulate the Stomach, Liver and bowels, take CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS. $50.

Yale-Harvard Football Game. For the accommodation of those who desire to witness the Yale-Harvard football game at Springfield, Mass., November 23, the New-York, New-Haven & Hartford

Railroad Company will run, on that date, eaving New-York at 9:00 a. m., due in Springfield at 12:30 p. m., making no stop between New-York and Springfield. Returning the train will leave Springfield at 6:00 p. m. This train will be made up entirely of Drawing-room cars. The sale of tickets is limited to the capacity of seven cars. Fare for the round trip, including seat in Drawing-room car, Seven Dollars ($7.00).

Tickets for this train are now on sale at the Commutation Ticket Office of the Company, Room Number 3, Grand occur at any time.)

Letters for foreign countries need not be specially addressed for dispatch by any particular steamer, except when it is desired to send dipricates of banking and commercial documents, letters not specially addressed being sent by the fastest vessels available.

Foreign mails for the week ending November 16 will close (promptly in all cases) at this office as follows:

WEDNESDAY—At 5 a. m. for Europe, per s. s. City of New-York via Queenstown (letters for Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Russia and Turkey must be directed "per City of New-York"); at £ 300 a. m for Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Russia and Turkey, per s. Saale, via Bremen (letters for other European Countries, via Southampton, must be directed "per Saale"); at 5 300 a. m. for Europe, per s. s. Relythalad, via Queenstown (letters must be directed "per Teutonie"); at 5 30 a. m. for Beighum direct, per s. Rhynland, via 40 a. m. for Beighum direct, per s. s. Rhynland, via 5 a. m. for Europe (Saales), at 1 p. m. for Campedher, Chiapas, Tabasec and Yucatas, per s. s. City of Washington (letters for other Mexican States and Cuba must be directed "per Roylean (City of Washington ileitors for other Mexican States and Cuba must be directed "per Guy of Washington"; at 7 p. m. for Campedhe, Chiapas, Tabasec and Yucatas, per s. s. Augusta Victoria, via Southampton and Humburg: at 1 p. m. for Jamalea, Greytown, Lithynston, Belize and Puerto Cortez, per s. s. & Augusta Cortes, per s. s. & Wilnaven, Belizon and Puerto Cortez, per s. s. & Wilnaven, From New-Orienni. FRIDAY-At 3 p. m. for Truxille and Rustan, per a a

New-Orleans.

FRIDAY—At 3 p. m. for Truxillo and Rustan, per a s. J. Oteri, jr., from New-Orleans.

SATURDAY—At 7 a. m. for France, Switzerland, Italy, Smith and Portugal, per s. s. La Bournogne, via Havrei, at 7:30 a. m. for Scotland direct, per s. s. Antenia, via Gassalow and Portugal, per s. s. La Bournogne, via Havaillo, and the second of the sec